

Fill in the Blanks

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Slavery and the Missouri Compromise to help you complete the following activity.

1. When enough settlers lived in an area, that could apply to become a state.
2. James Tallmadge served in the House of from 1817 to 1819.
3. was known as "The Great Compromiser" for his skill at reaching agreements.
4. Chief Justice Roger B. Taney wrote the majority opinion explaining the Court's reasoning in the Dred Scott case.
5. "I have no fear for the ultimate triumph of free principles in this country," said.
6. Many white workers did not want to spread. They wanted to work on farms and factories in the new lands.

