

NAME

DATE

Match the year to the correct description. Check your answers with pages 8–9 of the book.

1.	1821
2.	1823
3.	1830
4.	1833
5.	1835
6.	1836

After trying to negotiate with Santa Anna, with limited success, the Texians launch attacks against the Mexican government at Anahuac and Gonzales.

Texas declares its independence from Mexico.

The signing of the Treaty of Cordoba makes Mexico a nation in its own right, free from Spanish rule.

Mexico elects Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna as its president. He begins making changes to the structure of Mexico's government.

With American settlers outnumbering Mexicans in Texas, the Mexican government bans foreign immigration to the state.

Mexico passes the General Colonization Law, which encourages foreign settlement of Texas.

