

NAME

DATE

Number the events below in the order they should appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event. Check your answers with pages 22–23 of the book.

Italian artist and scientist Leonardo da Vinci is the first person to draw an accurate sketch of the human heart and blood vessels.

Stephen Hales measures human blood pressure for the first time.

Patients can have a heart valve replaced by a catheter instead of undergoing open-heart surgery.

Indian physician Sushruta describes how vital fluids circulate in the human body.

Christiaan Barnard of South Africa performs the first heart transplant surgery.

In England, William Harvey first describes blood circulation and how the heart pumps blood around the body.

