

Timeline

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Number the events below in the order they should appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event. Check your answers with pages 22–23 of the book.

The muscle disease myasthenia gravis is first recorded as a distinct medical condition by British physician Thomas Willis.

Tissue engineering is developed, which allows doctors to repair or replace damaged muscle.

The Muscular Dystrophy Association supports 175 research projects for the disease.

Italian scientist and artist Leonardo da Vinci produces detailed and accurate drawings of the anatomy of the human body and the movements of muscles.

In Scotland, William Balfour writes the first full description of fibromyalgia.

The Greek physician Hippocrates, who is known as the “father of medicine,” spends much of his life studying the human body.

