

Using the information on pages 28–29 of the book, fill in the blanks with the development relating to energy technology in each location. Using information found in the book and research online, briefly explain why each location is important to the field of biomimimetics.

1

2

3

4

