

Fill in the Blanks

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Medical Technology to help you complete the following activity.

1.  is the science of copying nature to solve human problems.
2. The tardigrade-inspired sugar coating allows vaccines to last without  for up to six months.
3. In the 1950s, people in Russia's Caucasus Mountains used  flowers to help with head pains.
4. Bioengineer Jeffrey Karp was inspired by  feet to make surgical tape while working at Brigham and Women's Hospital (BWH) in Boston, Massachusetts.
5. Ivy roots change  to fit the wall the plant is growing on.
6. Jellyfish use their long tentacles to catch .

