

Using the internet and the library, research news stories about school uniforms in your state. In the space below, outline what you have found about uniforms and their effect. Note if any cities in your state have a large percentage of schools with uniform requirements. Explain how your research has effected your opinion of school uniforms.