

Using the information in Homework, select an answer from the right and write the letter in the box beside the statement.

1. About this percentage of U.S. teachers assign homework that requires internet access.

A. 3

2. In Finland, students younger than this age rarely have homework.

B. 70

3. In 2017, more than this many Harvard University students in a computer science course were suspected of cheating.

C. 12,000

4. Nearly one in this many U.S. students will not graduate high school.

D. 22

5. Every year, the United States spends about this many dollars on each student's education.

E. 5

6. One in this many U.S. high school students admits to using technology to cheat.

F. 60

7. In one survey, this percentage of 13-year-olds reported that they never or hardly ever read for pleasure.

G. 13

