

Match the year to the correct description. Check your answers with page 7 of the book.

1	1948
----------	-------------

The NCAA introduces a “Sanity Code” that restricts financial aid for athletes to school expenses such as tuition.

2	1973
----------	-------------

The NCAA prohibits schools from offering multi-year scholarships. The schools get to decide if they want to renew these yearly scholarships with their athletes.

3	2018
----------	-------------

The NCAA is formed as the Intercollegiate Athletic Association of the United States.

4	1906
----------	-------------

An FBI investigation reveals several coaches, sports agents, and sponsor employees broke NCAA rules and provided extra financial incentives to entice athletic prospects to join their teams.

5	1955
----------	-------------

Freshman players at the University of Pittsburgh go on strike to demand equal compensation with senior players.

6	1939
----------	-------------

The term “student-athlete” is first used as a legal defense against those seeking compensation for sport-related injuries.

