

Fill in the Blanks

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Baseball to help you complete the following activity.

1. The  is where batters run from base to base.
2. Many U.S. presidents, including Woodrow Wilson in 1916, have thrown a  to mark the beginning of each baseball season.
3. A  is a short hit laid down close to home plate.
4. The team in the field tries to stop the players from  by getting them out.
5. Major League teams  players for their lower teams.
6. Umpires use  to show their calls during a game.

