

Use the information found in Curling to help you complete the following activity.

1. helps build muscle, and products make strong bones.
2. Small, flat stones called "" have been found in dried-up ponds in Scotland.
3. Early curling competitions took place on . Real brooms were used to sweep the ice ahead of the stones.
4. The locations of major change each year, but many are held in colder states, such as Minnesota, where the sport is most popular.
5. A coin toss at the beginning of the game decides which team gets the .
6. The granite used to make the curling rocks is in Wales or Scotland.

