

Fill in the Blank

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Football to help you complete the following activity.

1. One way to prevent a touchdown is to catch a pass from the other team.
This is called an .
2. Fruit is a good source of . It gives people quick bursts of energy.
3. A team has four chances to score a or to move the ball ahead enough to get another four chances.
4. The is the player who usually passes the ball.
5. There is a at each end of a football field.
6. With close ties to and soccer, American football truly became its own game in the late 1800s.

