

Timeline

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Number the events below in the order they should appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event. Check your answers with page 17 of the book.

The first major national championship of golf is played in Great Britain. The winner is a man named Willie Park.

The first golf club is formed in Scotland. It is called "The Gentlemen Golfers of Leith."

The PGA ends segregation and allows golfers of all races to compete.

Patrick Reed of the United States wins the Masters for the first time in his career.

The first dimpled golf ball was invented.

The modern game of golf begins in Scotland. Players use a pebble instead of a golf ball and a stick instead of a golf club.

