

Timeline

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Number the events below in the order they should appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event. Check your answers with page 17 of the book.

After a 64-year absence, tennis returns as an official Olympic sport. Steffi Graf takes home the women's gold medal in Seoul, South Korea.

Major Walter Clopton Wingfield publishes a tennis rulebook. He is considered the creator of modern lawn tennis.

Serena Williams wins her seventh Wimbledon title in singles, and sixth title in doubles.

The International Lawn Tennis Federation is formed. This organization brings together fifteen different countries with the goal of having one universal set of tennis guidelines.

Billie Jean King won the "Battle of the Sexes" match against Bobby Riggs.

At the Paris Olympics, Charlotte Cooper wins a gold medal in tennis. She is the first female athlete to take home the gold in an individual Olympic event.

