

Timeline

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Number the events below in the order they should appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event. Check your answers with page 17 of the book.

The United States Volleyball Association, which later became USA Volleyball, is formed. This organization regulates volleyball rules and plans official tournaments.

During the Tokyo Olympics, men's and women's teams can medal in volleyball for the first time.

Poland defeats Brazil to win the FIVB Volleyball Men's World Championship for the second time in a row.

Volleyball is invented by William G. Morgan. It is designed to combine basketball, baseball, tennis, and handball.

Beach volleyball becomes an Olympic sport during the Summer Olympics in Atlanta, Georgia.

Kerri Walsh Jennings becomes the first U.S. player to compete in four Olympic beach volleyball tournaments. She wins a bronze medal along with her teammate, April Ross.

