Exciting moments that happen during football games are often the topic of news stories. Choose one of the key events in the book, and write a news story about it in the space below.

News stories focus on a specific event and date in time. If there is more than one side to the story, be sure to present both. The story should include answers to these five key questions.

1. Who is the story about? This may be a person, team, organization, or company.
2. What is the event? It may be a regular- or post-season game, or even a practice.
3. Where did the event take place? This should include the city and stadium.
4. When did the event take place? This should include the complete date and, if possible, the time.
5. Why is the event important? Explain why this was a key event for the team or player. How did the event impact the team, the players, or the fans?

Create a Timeline

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

1. Using your AV² book, as well as research found in the library and on the internet, create a list of some of the most important games and events that have taken place throughout the LSU Tigers' history. Your list should include dates from at least six important moments in the team's history. Organize the events by date, from the earliest to the most recent. Then, use your list of events to create a timeline in the boxes below.

A horizontal timeline consisting of a thick red line with six white rectangular boxes spaced evenly along it. Below each box is a larger, empty white rectangular box connected by a vertical line, intended for writing details about the event.

2. Pick one event from your timeline. Why was this event important to the team? Write your answer in a short paragraph.

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing a paragraph about a chosen event from the timeline.
