

Make a Timeline

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Number the events below in the order they should appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event. Check your answers with pages 28–29 of the book.

Unicorns become a craze. Many companies start producing unicorn-themed items.

The Chinese explorer Cheng Ho returns from a trip to Africa with a unicorn as a gift for the Chinese emperor. The unicorn is in fact a giraffe.

Greek historian Ctesias mentions unicorns in his book Indica.

Spanish bishop Isidore of Seville discusses unicorns in his book, The Etymologies.

A new throne is built for Frederik III, the king of Denmark. The throne is said to be made from unicorn horns, but is actually made from narwhal tusks.

Roman historian Pliny the Elder describes unicorns in his Naturalis Historia. According to Pliny's description, unicorns have a stag's head, an elephant's feet, a boar's tail, the body of a horse, and a single black horn in the middle of their head.

