

Fill in the Blanks

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Grand Canyon to help you complete the following activity.

1. The Colorado River flows through the canyon. The river is long.
2. Weathering is the process that large rocks into smaller rocks and rock particles.
3. At 8,200 feet (2,500 m) above sea level, the is the highest and coolest part of the canyon.
4. The United States government sent an engineer named to map the area in 1857.
5. Humans have lived in and around the Grand Canyon for thousands of years, long before the first arrived.
6. The believe that their ancestors traveled to Earth's surface from below the ground.

