

Number the events below in the order they should appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event. Check your answers with page 13 of the book.

Toddler Lane Graves is building sandcastles outside his Disney World Hotel in Florida when he ventures toward the edge of a pond to get some water. An alligator rises up, grabs Lane, and then drags him into the water.

Bear enthusiast Timothy Treadwell is living among the grizzly bears of Alaska with his girlfriend when a bear enters his campsite and attacks. Both Treadwell and his girlfriend die in the attack.

Hawaiian surfer Bethany Hamilton is lying on her surfboard when a shark attacks, biting off her left arm. She goes on to excel in her sport.

When a polar bear attacks a man and his grandson in northern Canada, Hattie Amitnaaq intervenes, only to be fatally mauled herself.

While out cycling in the foothills of Washington's Cascade Mountains, two people realize they are being stalked by a cougar. They are able to scare it away, but it soon returns and grabs one of the cyclists. When the other cyclist begins to run, the cougar attacks that cyclist instead. That cyclist does not survive the encounter.

While out jogging on a remote road in Alaska, teacher Candice Berner is attacked by a pack of wolves and killed. It is the first fatal wolf attack to be recorded in the state.

