

Fill in the Blanks

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Being Lost at Sea to help you complete the following activity.

1. People traveling by sea can write down their plans. This helps know when something is wrong and where to start looking.
2. A great white shark can sense blood in the water from away.
3. Castaways need shelter from the Sun. Many life rafts have a .
4. is made up of many different salts.
5. Most life have kits that provide people with the basics for survival.
6. A person cannot survive past without water.

