

Fill in the Blanks

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Mapping to help you complete the following activity.

1. A compass shows the of a map using the cardinal points.
2. Landforms are made by and tectonic activity.
3. The is an imaginary line that circles around the center of Earth from east to west.
4. When Earth is shown on a flat surface, such as a piece of paper, changes called must be made to the way it looks.
5. To read a map, you must know the four , or important, points on a map.
6. The prime meridian is an imaginary that runs from the North Pole to the South Pole.

