

Fill in the Blanks

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Primary Sources to help you complete the following activity.

1. is the set of facts or circumstances that surround a situation or event.
2. Textbooks, research articles, and biographies are examples of sources.
3. Photos may be taken to memories of things, or they might be created as art.
4. Bias is a preference or attitude that causes individuals to unfairly people or events in the world around them.
5. Primary sources are the first of something happening.
6. Letters are meant for the to whom they are addressed.

