

Major sporting events are often the topics of news stories. Choose one of the key events in the book, then write a news story in the space provided below.

News stories focus on a specific event and date. If there is more than one side to the story, be sure to present each side. Your story should include the answers to the following questions.

- 1. Who is the story about? This may be a person, group, organization, or company, for example.
- 2. What is the event?
- 3. Where did the event take place? This should include the city or town and venue.
- 4. When did the event take place? This should include the complete date and, if possible, the time.
- 5. Why is the event important? Explain what makes the event relevant. How did the event impact people or the community?
