

Fill in the Blanks

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Investigating Crop Circles to help you complete the following activity.

1. In 2001, a crop circle in the form of an ancient symbol called a appeared in Wiltshire, England.
2. Some people make crop circles as a form of or advertising.
3. Farmers may charge visitors to explore their crop circles to help offset the cost of their damaged .
4. Pat Delgado was an and engineer.
5. More crop circles have been reported in than in any other U.S. state.
6. Stonehenge is a very old in England that is made of giant stones.

