

Fill in the blanks using the information found in the pages of How to Tell a Myth.

1. were very wise people. Ancient Greeks believed they could also predict the future.
2. Most myths have heroes who perform great and deeds.
3. A myth of the Moken people of warns people to run uphill when the sea disappears.
4. The two Old Man Coyote meets are called minor characters.
5. Myths end shortly after the climax. This part of the story is called the .
6. According to ancient Greek myths, the gods lived on top of Mount .

