

Using information from the book, select an answer from the right and write the letter in the box beside the statement.

A beaver's tail can be about this many inches long.

A. 20

A beaver's front teeth can grow up to about this many feet every year.

B. 11.8

Newborn beavers are about this many inches long.

C. 3

Beavers can live to be about this many years old.

D. 15

Beavers are ready to mate and begin a family at this age.

E. 2

Beavers leave their parents' lodge at this age.

F. 4

Giant beavers measuring up to this many feet lived during the last Ice Age.

G. 7

