

Using information from the book, select an answer from the right and write the letter in the box beside the statement.

The U.S. cougar population is estimated to be about this many.

A. 386

Cubs stay with their mother for up to this many years.

B. 30,000

Male cougars have territories that cover between 30 and this many square miles.

C. 41

Each paw of an adult cougar is about 3 to this many inches across.

D. 2

There are about this many species of felidae in the world today.

E. 50,000

Today, there are about this many cougars living in nature around the world.

F. 4

The spots on the cubs' coat fade after about this many months.

G. 6

