

Use the information found in Owl to help you complete the following activity.

1. The width of a bird's wings, when they are spread out from tip to tip, is called its .
2. Bones, teeth, fur, and feathers are coughed up in bunches known as .
3. A mated pair of owls stays together to look after their .
4. Owls have special adaptations that help them  well at night.
5. Great gray owls have a  eyelid.
6. An owl might be a  of good or bad luck, death, or wisdom.

