

Using information from the book, select an answer from the right and write the letter in the box beside the statement.

Porcupines eat about this many pounds of plant matter each day.

A. 7

Often, porcupine males are about this many years old when they begin to breed.

B. 1

Baby porcupines, or porcupettes, are born about this many months after the male and female mate.

C. 6

Young female porcupines leave their mothers when they are about this many months of age.

D. 2

Scientists think that porcupines came from South America to North America about this many million years ago.

E. 5

Porcupines often have only one porcupette. It drinks milk from its mother for about four to this many months.

F. 3

