

Using information from the book, select an answer from the right and write the letter in the box beside the statement.

A wolf's howl can carry this many miles through the forest.

A. 70

Some scientists think that the first gray wolf came to North America about this many years ago.

B. 1

A wolf's territory can be as large as this many square miles.

C. 6

Wolves can smell animals that are more than this many miles away.

D. 500,000

A wolf can eat almost this percentage of its body weight in one meal.

E. 2

Wolf pups are considered adults when they are about this many years old.

F. 9

By this many months old, wolf pups have their full coat of fur.

G. 20

Use the information found in Wolf to help you complete the following activity.

1. A lone wolf may howl for many different reasons. Sometimes, a wolf howls to get in touch with its pack during a .
2. Wolves take  in places called dens.
3.  wolves have white fur, which helps them blend into their surroundings.
4. Wolves' closest relatives were small, carnivorous mammals known as .
5. The males in a wolf pack fight each other to find out who is the strongest. The most powerful male become the  male.
6. The wolf is from the same family as the dog. They are both .

Wolf Features

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME _____

DATE _____

Using the space provided, label each part of the wolf. Then, write a short sentence or two describing each part. Check your answers on pages 12 and 13 of the book.

Part:

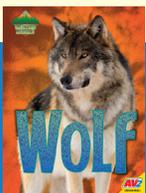

Part:

Part:

Part:

Part:

Wolf Life Cycle

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Using the boxes below, write a short sentence or two describing each stage of a wolf's life cycle. Check your answers on pages 16 and 17 of the book.

Birth to 2 Months Old

3 Months Old

9 Months Old

2 Years and Older

Using the information found in Wolf, verify whether the following statements are true or false. List the page number where you found the information beside your answer.

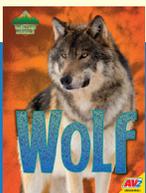

Statement 1   True  False Page Number

Statement 2   True  False Page Number

Statement 3   True  False Page Number

Statement 4   True  False Page Number

Statement 5   True  False Page Number

1 What type of animal is a wolf?

2 What is the most common type of wolf?

3 How long do wolves usually live?

4 What makes up the main part of a wolf's diet?

5 What kind of climate do most wolves live in?

6 How many pups can a female wolf give birth to in one litter?

7 What is the area that a wolf lives in called?

8 How far can wolves run without stopping?

Key Words Match-Up

Write the words from the list below in the box above the correct definition for each word.

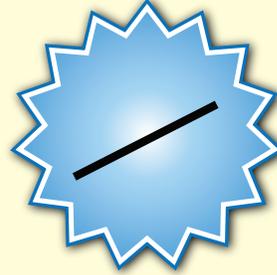

NAME

DATE

KEY WORDS

ancestor	mammals	prey
canines	packs	species
carnivorous	pelvis
communicate	predators

Your Score is

=

%

- to make sounds in order to share information
- a family of mammals that includes the dog and the fox
- warm-blooded, live-born animals that have a spine, fur or hair, and drink milk from their mother
- the bony structure near the base of the spine where the legs are attached
- feeding on other animals

- groups of wolves
- animals that hunt other animals
- a relative who lived a long time ago
- animals or plants that share certain features and can breed together
- an animal that is hunted for food

