

Use the information found in Curiosity to fill in the missing words in each sentence.

1. Curiosity is the desire to learn or something.
2. The journey, or , of learning and discovery matters more than finding the right answers.
3. The Rotary Club is a community group that offers a youth program.
4. Being curious about how the world works is the first step in discovering ways to it.
5. You can encourage others' curiosity by helping them explore their .
6. Many and community centers offer free clubs or classes for kids to join.

