

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Look at the pictures of people, objects, or actions associated with curiosity.
Write the letter for each sentence in the box beside the picture that it matches.

A

Finding other resources to learn from

B

Being open to learning from others

C

Visiting places in your community

D

Learning from others around you

E

Learning a new language

Using information found in Curiosity, verify whether the following statements are true or false. Check your answers in the book. If the answer is false, write the correct answer below the statement. List the page number where you found the information beside your answer.

- |             |   |                                |             |                      |
|-------------|---|--------------------------------|-------------|----------------------|
| Statement 1 | <input type="text" value="Curiosity is like a muscle. You need to use it to keep it strong."/>              | <input type="checkbox"/> True  | Page Number | <input type="text"/> |
|             |   | <input type="checkbox"/> False |             |                      |
| Statement 2 | <input type="text" value="When a curious person sees a problem to solve, they stop asking questions."/>     | <input type="checkbox"/> True  | Page Number | <input type="text"/> |
|             |   | <input type="checkbox"/> False |             |                      |
| Statement 3 | <input type="text" value="Clara Ma was 12 years old when she won the competition to name the Mars Rover."/> | <input type="checkbox"/> True  | Page Number | <input type="text"/> |
|             |   | <input type="checkbox"/> False |             |                      |
| Statement 4 | <input type="text" value="Experts can tell others what they should be curious about."/>                     | <input type="checkbox"/> True  | Page Number | <input type="text"/> |
|             |   | <input type="checkbox"/> False |             |                      |
| Statement 5 | <input type="text" value="Curious people are active learners."/>  | <input type="checkbox"/> True  | Page Number | <input type="text"/> |
|             |   | <input type="checkbox"/> False |             |                      |

Building Curiosity

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Consider how you can build curiosity by answering these questions using your own words and examples from your own life.

1. Why do you think curiosity is important?

2. How can you build your curiosity at home?

3. How can you build your curiosity at school?

4. How can you build your curiosity in your community?

5. How can you encourage curiosity in others?

Use the information found in Curiosity to fill in the missing words in each sentence.

1. Curiosity is the desire to learn or  something.
2. The journey, or , of learning and discovery matters more than finding the right answers.
3. The Rotary Club is a community group that offers a youth  program.
4. Being curious about how the world works is the first step in discovering ways to  it.
5. You can encourage others' curiosity by helping them explore their .
6. Many  and community centers offer free clubs or classes for kids to join.

Write a Letter

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

After completing the activity on page 22, write a letter to a person that would be able to answer one or more of your questions. What would you like to learn more about? Who would you write to in order to find out about it? Why is this question one that you would like to know the answer to?

Key Words Match-Up

Write the words from the list below in the box above the correct definition for each word.

NAME

DATE

KEY WORDS

collaborate
culture
desire electric enthusiastic

explore innovations
passion
process
resource

Your Score is

_____%

1.

something new or different that is introduced

2.

supply or support needed to do something

3.

a strong enthusiasm or desire

4.

describing something powered by electricity

5.

the shared beliefs and traditions in a place

6.

a set of steps or actions followed to achieve something

7.

to work together with others

8.

full of interest and excitement

9.

to investigate or learn about something

10.

the longing for something that brings enjoyment, such as learning

NAME

DATE

1 What name did Clara Ma suggest for the Mars Rover?

2 Are curious people active learners?

3 Does each person's curiosity develop in the same way?

4 Are curious people open to new experiences?

5 What is the first place in which your curiosity grows?

6 When did Curiosity launch?

