

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Empathy to fill in the missing words in each sentence.

1. When you express empathy toward others, you are a for them to follow.
2. You can show and develop empathy by taking time to listen to others express their feelings, and by being of what they say.
3. To be is to look at things from many different points of view and be accepting of many ways to think or do things.
4. To something means to recognize that it is important.
5. It is important not to make before learning a person's point of view.
6. It is important for family members to feel that they are by each other.

