

Use the information found in Museums to help you complete the following activity.

1. Visiting a museum is a way to learn about the .
2. Natural history museums display objects found in .
3.  are small walls within a gallery. They allow more works to be displayed and also help guide visitors through the space.
4. There are  main types of museum.
5. Oxford University opened the  Museum in 1683. It was the first museum to open to the general public.
6. The  keeps a museum's collection in good condition. He or she repairs parts that are damaged.

