

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Stadiums to help you complete the following activity.

1. Many of today's larger stadiums have . These are luxurious, and expensive, seating areas located high in a sports facility, with an excellent view of the playing field.
2. bands are commonly seen at college football games, where they play in support of their school teams.
3. A stadium tour typically includes a visit to the box. This is where sports journalists sit to watch and report on the game.
4. A stadium's seating area typically surrounds the field.
5. In 70 AD, the Romans built a giant stone stadium called the . Gladiator battles took place there in front of crowds as large as 50,000 people.
6. The event coordinator at a stadium organizes all of the games and taking place there.

