

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Great Smoky Mountains to fill in the blanks below.

1. The Smokies are the home of the Cherokee.
2. A is a document that states a nation's basic laws and principles.
3. Some people refer to Great Smoky Mountains National Park as the " Capital of the World."
4. The hemlock woolly adelgid lays its eggs near the base of a tree's .
5. are important to the Cherokee community. They provide support to younger generations and work to preserve Cherokee culture and traditions.
6. The Great Smoky Mountains are home to four major lines.

