

Fill in the Blanks

Follow the instructions to complete the activity.

NAME

DATE

Use the information found in Civil Engineer to help you complete the following activity.

1. Surveying allows civil engineers to record and analyze the of an area so that they can design an appropriate construction plan.
2. Civil engineers focus on making structures safe and for those who use them.
3. A civil engineer may be called upon to check the of an older structure, such as a bridge.
4. Scientists use the method to solve problems.
5. Civil engineers use counters to find out how many vehicles pass through certain areas.
6. Many of today's structures are built in sections. This means that they are produced in one place and assembled in another.

