

Number the events below in the order they would appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event.

Don Kellner skydives for the 45,000th time in April. He breaks his own world record for the most jumps ever by one person.

In Paris, France, André-Jacques Garnerin makes a parachute jump from a height of about 3,200 feet (975 meters).

Five European nations take part in the first World Parachuting Championships in Yugoslavia. The champion skydivers are Pierre Lard and Monique Laroche.

Leslie Irvin makes the first intentional free fall jump from an airplane before manually opening a parachute. His parachute is deployed with a ripcord.

On June 21, in Los Angeles, California, Georgia "Tiny" Broadwick parachutes from an airplane. She is the first woman to ever do so.

Felix Baumgartner jumps a record 128,100 feet (39,045 m) from a helium balloon.

