

Using the information in Washington Football Team, select an answer from the right and write the letter in the box beside the statement.

1.

Art Monk had more than this many receiving yards in 5 of the 14 seasons he spent with Washington.

A. 65,488

2.

In 2012, a sixth-round draft pick named Alfred Morris came out of nowhere to win Washington's starting running back job. Morris carried the ball this many times.

B. 2

3.

Washington won this many playoff games in 16 years under the direction of Coach Joe Gibbs.

C. 335

4.

In the 2019 season, Washington had an average attendance of this many fans at each home game.

D. 4,000

5.

Kirk Cousins is one of five Washington quarterbacks to pass for more than this many yards in a season.

E. 1,000

6.

Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan took down the quarterback almost this many times during his time with Washington.

F. 17

7.

Washington has officially retired this many numbers.

G. 100
