

Using information from the book, select an answer from the right and write its letter in the box beside the correct statement.

1. The first known Shiba to live in the United States arrived in this year.

A. 40

2. A Shiba's muzzle is relatively long, making up about this percent of its head length.

B. 1992

3. Adult male Shibas weigh about this many pounds.

C. 14,000

4. The Shiba Inu breed was not officially recognized by the American Kennel Club (AKC) until this year.

D. 1954

5. A group of people called the Jōmon came to Japan more than this many years ago.

E. 23

