

Number the events below in the order they should appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event. Check your answers with page 17 of the book.

The first field hockey World Cup is held in Barcelona, Spain. Pakistan takes home the gold medal.

The Hockey Association is formed in London, England. The group creates a set of rules and regulations for all field hockey teams to follow.

The U.S. women's field hockey team wins at the Pan American Games in Toronto, Canada.

Belgium wins the gold medal in men's field hockey at the Tokyo Olympics. The Netherlands wins the gold in women's field hockey.

Field hockey players begin to wear protective equipment, such as shin and knee guards.

The first recorded use of the name "hockey" occurs when King Edward III of England bans sports for the working class.

