

Use the information found in Ziplining to fill in the blanks below.

1.  brakes put the guide or the zipper in charge of braking.
They have to be applied manually.
2.  is a popular activity in which people jump from an airplane while wearing a parachute.
3. Some zipline courses require zippers to wear .
These reduce friction and protect the rider's hands while braking.
4.  jumping is a sport that involves jumping from an elevated position while wearing a harness.
5. Ziplining carabiners are commonly made of .
6. The earliest ziplines can be traced back hundreds of years to the Himalayas, in Asia, and the , in Europe.

