

Number the events below in the order they should appear on the timeline. Write the number in the box beside each event. Check your answers with page 17 of the book.

Snowboarding is showcased at the first Winter X Games in California.

The first Snowboard World Cup is held in the town of Zürs, Austria.

Sherman Poppen builds one of the first snowboards, the "Snurfer." Many other early snowboards use a similar design.

Snowboarding is recognized as an official Olympic sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC).

American snowboarding legend Shaun White participates in his fifth straight Winter Olympics, placing fourth in the halfpipe event.

Adaptive snowboarding makes its debut in the Paralympic Winter Games in Russia.

