

Test your knowledge by answering the following questions.

1. Male bighorn sheep are called rams. They can charge at speeds up to this many miles per hour.

2. Theodore Roosevelt, who later became president of the United States, helped start the Boone and Crockett Club in this year.

3. In 2023, there were nearly this many hunting accidents in the United States and Canada.

4. Each year, more than this many people in the United States go hunting.

