MNUFC has its biggest victory in franchise history in June, and the club ends the season with its best placements to date. The Loons also make their first appearances in the MLS playoffs.

NASL team NSC Minnesota is founded. The club wins the NASL Championship the following year.

NSC Minnesota is renamed Minnesota Stars FC. They are rebranded as Minnesota United FC in 2013.

It is announced that Minnesota has been awarded an MLS expansion franchise.

The Loons qualify for the playoffs for the fourth year in a row.

Minnesota United FC signs its first homegrown player, Fred Emmings, in January. The club has its best playoff run ever, making it to the Western Conference Finals.
