Amateur club Nashville FC is founded by a group of supporters. It begins playing in the NPSL the next season.

Nashville SC plays their first MLS game. The team qualifies for the playoffs, reaching the conference semifinals.

In May, the Boys in Gold play their first match at GEODIS Park. They qualify for the playoffs for the third time in a row.

It is announced that an MLS team will be coming to Nashville. Gary Smith is hired as head coach.

The club makes it to the final match of the Leagues Cup in August but loses to Inter Miami CF in a penalty shootout. NSC makes their fourth MLS playoff appearance.

Nashville's MLS branding is revealed. Smith is promoted to MLS head coach and Hany Mukhtar becomes the club's first designated player.
